SANBORNS IN ILLINOIS—PART I

Earl H Perry

John and Mehitabel (Sanborn) Sanborn

John Sanborn (VCS #929), born July 22, 1797, in Salisbury NH, was the third of seven children of Winthrop (VCS #359) and Betsey (Fitz) Sanborn in Salisbury, NH. Winthrop fought with an eastern militia during the Revolutionary War. John served in the War of 1812 and the Black Hawk War. John married Mehitabel Sanborn (VCS #358, ix), July 5, 1840, in Salisbury, NH. Mehitabel was the daughter of Abraham (VCS #358) and his second wife, Sarah (Lovering) Sanborn. John and Mehitabel were first cousins. John and Mehitabel migrated west in the Spring of 1837, to English Prairie, now in McHenry County IL. He was the second white man that settled in English Prairie. However, as the name implies, the English had been there first. John found stakes in the ground indicating surveying had been done. According to V. C. Sanborn (p 377) and local history, the English returned later that year, 20 of them, stating John was on their claim and he would have to leave. John told them he could make the prairie smell worse of dead British than Hell did of brimstone! They had many fights and John carried the scars to his grave. John prevailed, took one side of the prairie and divided it with his friends. John d. August 16, 1883, and is buried in Sanborn-Orvis Cemetery, Spring Grove IL. V. C. Sanborn states Mehitabel's father, Abraham Sanborn, died in Salisbury NH but local history states he came to English Prairie with John and Mehitabel and died there. English Prairie is not a town, but a parcel of land near Burton IL.

John and Mehitabel had five children:

(1) Lavinia (Lavina, Levina) Sanborn, b. December 30, 1841, English Prairie IL, m. November 4, 1866, in Wilmot WI, Samuel L. Orvis, b. 1840 in WI. Lavinia d. in 1918 and Samuel d. February 21, 1921. Both are buried in the Sanborn-Orvis Cemetery, Spring Grove IL. English Prairie and Spring Grove are in the Burton township area. They had three children.

Frank B.Orvis, b. June 1, 1876, Spring Grove, d. July 27, 1909, Spring Grove, buried in the Sanborn Orvis-Cemetery.

Rose L. Orvis, b. 1871, Spring Grove, m. James Madden, b. 1858, d. April 22, 1959, Milwaukee WI. Rose d. in 1922 and both are buried in the Sanborn-Orvis Cemetery.

Byron L.Orvis, b. 1872, Spring Grove, d. 1953, buried in the Sanborn-Orvis Cemetery.

Author's notes:

I received a Chicago Tribune newspaper clipping dated December 26, 1996, from Donald Sanborn of Geneva IL, that carried a picture of the Sanborn Orvis Cemetery and Samuel Orvis with his wife, "Lavina Sanborn Orvis."

I contacted the Chicago Tribune Staff Photographer, Jerry Thomaselli, identified in the photo captions, and he graciously loaned the negatives from that shoot to me. The accompanying article mentioned the McHenry County Illinois Historical Society as the source of the picture of Samuel Orvis and Lavina Sanborn Orvis. They also provided the name and address of Mrs Edith R Martel, great granddaughter of Lavina (Sanborn) Orvis, living very near the Sanborn-Orvis Cemetery. Mrs Martel is on the Cemetery Board and provided much information regarding the Sanborns buried in the cemetery and the allied families. The McHenry County Illinois Genealogical Society provided the allied surnames and headstone dates for Madden, Blackmon, Harms, Orvis, Warriner, and Franklin that are buried in the Sanborn-Orvis Cemetery.

It's anticipated that Part II will cover the Sanborn lines that remained in English Prairie and nearby, such as Winthrop (VCS #359) and Betsey (Fitz) Sanborn and their connections to John and Mehitabel Sanborn.

FROM THE GENEALOGIST'S CORNER

George F Sanborn Jr, Genealogist, SFA
Unsolved Mysteries

In my work revising and updating the Sanborn genealogy for eventual publication by The Sanborn Family Association, I sometimes come across individuals who seem to have gone missing. From time to time I shall write about them in this column for two reasons: first, someone might have discovered some information about them; and, second, it is good to get the problems out in the open with all available evidence and information so that everyone, including the Genealogist, can see what information we have, and that may suggest new avenues of pursuit for further research. It is also good to leave a record behind of these problems and what we have been able to do to resolve them.

Martha (Sanborn) Dow

Perhaps the most vexing of our early problems is the identification of Martha (Sanborn) Dow. We first encounter Martha on 8 August 1723 when she married Henry Dow in Hampton NH (George Freeman Sanborn Jr and Melinde Lutz Sanborn, Vital Records of Hampton, New Hampshire, to the End of the Year 1900, in two volumes [Boston MA: New England Historic Genealogical Society, 1992 + 1998], 1:132, 2:43, hereafter Hampton VRs). Henry and Martha had one child, a son Daniel, born in Hampton on 27 January 1723/4 (Hampton VRs, 1:159), who was baptized in Hampton on 12 May 1728, "Son of Henry Dow Deceas'd" (Hampton VRs, 2:33). This Henry Dow was Henry¹ Dow, born probably in Hampton, and baptized there 26 June 1698 (Hampton VRs, 2:6), and died in Hampton on 4 June 1727 (Hampton VRs, 2:459), son of Daniel² (Henry³) and Elizabeth (Lamprey) Dow.

Besides being unable to identify Martha, we do not know what became of her; perhaps she died in childbirth. There is no mention of her death or remarriage in the Hampton records. Death records from around that time are rather scarce. She did not appear in anyone's probate records. Neither Henry nor Martha bought or sold land, or appeared in court records. Like a comet named Martha, she made a brief appearance and then disappeared. Assuming that she was aged 20 years at marriage, she would have been born about 1703-1704. It is not impossible that she was the young widow of a male Sanborn, in which case we need to look for a Martha of another surname. However, there is no evidence that she was a young widow, and we do not seem to have any available male Sanborns who could have married her and then promptly died.

The son, Daniel⁴ Dow, is said to have married on 27 November 1749, Rachel⁵ Brown, daughter of Joshua⁶ (Jacob⁷, John⁸) and Rachel (Sanborn) Brown (Joseph Dow, History of the Town of Hampton, New Hampshire, from Its Settlement in 1638, to the Autumn of 1892, in two volumes [Salem MA: Lucy E Dow, 1894 + 1893], 2:682, but there is no record of this marriage in Hampton or in neighboring towns). Daniel and Rachel are said by Joseph Dow to have lived on Dow's Hill in North Hampton, and had the following children whose births are recorded in North Hampton Town Records (Genealogical Society of Utah, microfilm no. 0985791, n.p.): Elizabeth, b 13 July 1753; Rachel, b 7 Sep 1756; Simon, b 7 June 1759; Miriam, b 21 Mar 1762; and Abraham Brown Dow, b 30 Aug 1767. Rachel's mother, Rachel⁹ (Sanborn) Brown, was the daughter of Josiah¹⁰ (William¹¹) and his second wife, Sarah (____) (Perkins) Sanborn of Hampton.

PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

Roscoe E Sanborn

It is coming close to the end of my second year as President of The Sanborn Family Association. It has been good for me to learn that there are many thousands of people out there who are, as I am, related to one or more of those Sanborn boys whom George F Sanborn Jr (our Genealogist) has called "Our Immigrant Ancestors". George, William, and Stephen Samborne.

It has been good for me because, living as I am in a retirement community having a sheltered environment, I could easily become withdrawn from the larger society to nurse my misfortunes. With the help of the folks of the SFA and others, I am kept as busy as I wish to be (and a little bit more) and find little time for solitude and seclusion.

One of the situations occupying some attention just now involves a new member, Roger Howison. I have not yet met Roger but I have had correspondence with him and have had several telephone conversations. Briefly, his story (as I have learned it) goes something like this:

Roger was born in Kansas City MO on 24 July 1946. His birth name was Roger Dale Sanborn. His father's name was (and is) Earling O Sanborn and most likely was a welder by trade. His mother's name is not known. His childhood he knows little about but it seems that some of it was spent in Vallejo CA. Roger has a document from the State of California called a "Child Health Record" (or part of one), dated 2 June 1947 through 23 Aug 1948. This record carries an address of "258 St Helena, Vallejo, California". This address may have been that of an aunt or other relative.

Roger as a child was brought up in Portland OR by someone unknown and he saw his father frequently until he was about 17 years old. In 1963 at an age of 17 Roger was adopted by Allen and Betty Howison, after having been possibly a State Ward. The adoption took place in Portland OR and, I understand, by law the related records are unobtainable. The Howisons, who now live in Valley Springs CA have been contacted recently and are aware that Roger is seeking his blood relations.

Roger has his application for SFA membership pending and would like help in identifying and locating his father or any other blood relative. All you SFA members and friends: Please contact me or any SFA officer with information you might have or can get, that might help Roger Howison find out who he is. You can reach Roger Howison at 129 School Street, Acton MA 01720. Telephone 978-263-3756.

I would again like to thank all the people who contributed in many ways to this newsletter. Please keep the queries, clippings, and other information coming in. We can use it; and the information will be preserved in the SFA archives 'forever'.

Our Sanborn Signatures is useful as I recently found out. A writer in CA used the Sarah Kimball letter (in SanSig, 1985, vol 2, #1) as one source for her article, "The Kimballs of the Whitman Massacre", to be published by the Clatsop County Historical Society (Astoria, OR).

Special thanks again go to SFA member Glen Hawkins for producing this newsletter. He is a professional graphic designer with his own business, Hawkins Design, in Boston (617-524-4032).

We are going to ask for volunteers for the reunion in 2000 at this meeting. How about the people from out of state? It is not hard to do; we will provide a package with general instructions. Ladies and gentlemen, bring some of your favorite family recipes. We would like to put together a family cookbook to raise funds for the scholarship. Also, bring your handiwork, crafts, or other donations for the silent auction. The information packet with more details is being sent out separately. We suggest you make reservations at the hotels as early as possible; a list is in the packet. Local contact person is Everett J Sanborn, 143 Currier Rd, Andover NH 03216, phone 603-735-5817.

This time we'll open the raffle up to all members of the SFA by taking raffle requests via mail up to the time of the meeting. Tickets are $1 each, or 6 for $5. Please send a check to the SFA Secretary, Priscilla Watts, 52 Range Road, Deerfield NH 03037. If you'd like the stubs returned to you, please enclose an SASE with your check.

REP ALAN SANBORN

The editor [CAW] saw an article in his local newspaper (Providence [RI] Journal, 3 Jan 1999) about an Alan Sanborn, a Representative in the Michigan state legislature. Sanborn was planning to introduce legislation "that would allow colleges to develop student-responsibility contracts that could include expected conduct, a code of ethics and disciplinary action." It would be aimed at curbing excessive drinking by college students.

Rep Sanborn was contacted by email and he responded with a brief biography from which the following was taken.

He was born 21 July 1957; he and his wife Lori have three children - Adam, Joshua, and Marirose - and he is a member of the Church of Christ. Mr Sanborn majored in Social Science with a minor in Political Science while earning a BS degree at Michigan State University. He worked as a Probation Officer in Macomb County 1978-98. He was elected to the Michigan House of Representatives in February 1998 to represent Macomb County, located northeast of Detroit. In the House he serves on several committees including being chair of the Insurance and Financial Services committee.

Rep Sanborn has been active for more than 10 years in youth and athletic activities including being a basketball, baseball, and soccer coach.

WHO IS D. SANBORN

Ardith Y James has sent this photo with the name "D Sanborn" on the back. Can anyone identify him? She found it in an album that had belonged to her husband's grandfather. Ardith writes that the "album dates back to the 1870s and has photos from both Minnesota & Illinois, where grandfather Edward N. James had photography studios in different towns at different times." She hopes that someone in the SFA will recognize him. If so, please write to: Ardith Y James, 820 Cajon St, Redlands CA 92373-6712.

SANBORN NEWS

SFA member, Andrea C D Crossman, has been in the news recently in her role as Chapter Registrar of the Framingham MA chapter of the National Society of the DAR. An article in the Laconia Citizen (NH) of 10 Dec 1998 describes her presentation of a set of the DAR Patriot Index volumes to the Sanbornton NH town historian, Mildred B Shaw. Another article, in the Metrowest Daily News (Framingham MA) of 22 Nov 1998, relates her role in helping to restore the Indian Burial Place tablet in Framingham. Both articles are illustrated with a photograph.

Emma & Dale Carter, SFA members, report the birth of two great grandchildren, Cheylee Ann Marie Carter born in Feb 1998 and Cody Allen Roy Carter in Nov 1998. They now have four great grandchildren.

Member Mary Sanborn Barber of Weslaco TX and Longmont CO responded to receiving her new SFA membership card with a nice note to treasurer, Ruth Anne Norcross, relating some family information that she has agreed to share with the SFA. Her brother Kent Lincoln Sanborn "is doing reasonably well for a person with emphysema - needs oxygen part of the time. He & Jean visited me in Colorado last summer [1998] & heat rather than high altitude gave him more problems. Our last aunt, sister of our father, died last summer at 100 yrs 11 mo. She was Jeane Sanborn Whyte & lived in CT when she died. Has 2 sons living - both bachelors. One is in Beaver Dam, WI, & the other in Buffalo, NY. Some of us had a wonderful family picnic in Madison, WI, with 3 generations represented. I was visiting some of my children in Milwaukee for a week. Maybe sometime I'll get to another SFA reunion. I have son & family in Beverly, MA & he & I attended once."
